

Out in Nature - Colouring Activity

Inspired by people and the natural world artist Valentine Cameron Prinsep (1838-1904) created this oil painting named 'The Gamekeeper's Daughter'.

DID YOU KNOW?

The first gamekeepers in Britain protected the deer from poachers in the medieval Royal hunting forests.

Today, gamekeepers help wildlife thrive in the countryside. They protect woods, hedgerows and fields. Many gamekeepers also rear pheasants and partridges to release into the countryside.
